Gone Again

The editor of this paper left us on Monday, on a trip to Memphis. He may return this evening, or he may not. This number has been, in consequence of the editor's absence, edited by the publisher. whose only apology for the meagreness of the matter, quality and interest, is, that his many other duties in the office prevent his giving that time and attention to pen and scissors, which are requisite and neccosary to furnish an interesting paper with copy-more copy! Here it is take it.

The dust in our streets is as thick a mush, and a great deal lighter. On Sunday and Monday we had misty drizzies just coough to let us know that all the water above hadn't "gin out."

Mississivet and Tannamer Rammont,— Track laying below Panels Depot, on this road, is programing alonly, but surely. Some 3,000 or 6,000 bars of iron are on and more on the way. The greatest difficulty met with in the work, is the giving out of the Emeralders employed. They cant stand the hot weather like Congo can. We learn that the track will be aid to Yorkna Depot by September next. Peak on the work, and never stop, until the iron hands clasp the soil in the streets of proad Grenada.

A singular strike occurred a few days ago, at Quincy, Mass. The boot makers of the town, to the number of about two hundred, refused to confinue working for their employers un less the latter discharged a number of American workmen, who were obnoxious to the others, who were mostly foreigners. We are not informed of the result of this unreasonable demand.

WOLLDN'T PART WITH HER HOOPS, —The Terre Haute (Ind.) jail was emptied of nine prisoners on Tuesday evening. A girl named Jane Waldron was the only one of the ten who remained, and she said that she could have got away as easily as the rest. but wouldn't go because of the trouble of taking off her hoops to do it.
